Basket ball + Soccer game

No.

Date

1. When you have the ball, the person can only kick the ball two times before you pick up the ball and throw it/Pass it.
2. To be able to score you must throw the ball to a box goal and the farther you are from the goal, the more points you will receive, but the opposing team can steal the ball if you are trying to score.
3. If you have the ball, then the opposing team must not kick or get rough with you. If you get kicked or they are in your personal space then you get a free attempt to score at any length, but you are guarded.

Chosen design

- Including the rules from number one, the equipment will be a regular ball but at the ~~bottom~~ sides, there will be the basketball grip

basketball grip

Field: The field will be the size of a regular soccer court but it will have the basketball lines.

rules: if you try to pass to your teammate but you ~~will~~ purposely hit your opponent to reset your 2 touches than the other team gets possession of ball
