

What do you see, observe

or notice?

Pic 1: Children are playing with a few toys, they ~~are~~ lack options and resources

Pic 2: Children are happy but they are in a Suburban area.

PEEL

THE FRUIT

What questions or puzzles do you have?

Pic 1: Where they get their relatively new toy from and what activities do they do.
Pic 2: Why are they smiling? are they temporarily satisfied, not cold, not hungry?

What is this really about?

Pic 1: Abandoned children with few toys and access to resources.
Pic 2: Children are just left alone with no education and just roaming around.

1. Outside skin

4. Making connections

2. Under the skin

3. Building explanations

6. Capturing the heart

5. Different viewpoints

COOL
.ORG

How does this issue fit with your life and the world?

Pic 1: We had more resources and toys and a much better life than ~~than~~
Pic 2: Lack attention and care

How could we see this issue from another perspective?

Pic 1: The boy with the new toy is happy, the others may feel bored and better cloth.
Pic 2: The 2 boys in the middle may have much better choice for food due to the lack of varieties in daily activities and age gaps

What is the central idea or message?

Pic 1: Realize that some people may not have as much resource, toys, food, water, clothing.
Pic 2: Some kids don't get that much attention, and spend time alone,

Raifah, Selvia, James, Chris.